

Solutions to the Dropout Crisis

Tuesday, March 25, 2008

3:30 – 4:30 p.m. Eastern Time

Policies and Practices Related to Student Failure and Dropping Out: Tools and Resources

presented by

Dr. Raymond E. Morley

Dr. Ray Morley has over 35 years experience in dropout prevention programs, at-risk programs, education of homeless children and youth, coordination of work experience and cooperative education, and school-based youth services programs. He helped establish the International Association of Learning Alternatives.

- ★ How can you enable students to be more successful in schools?
- ★ What tools can you use that will help you personalize learning environments to meet the needs of all students?

Students and teachers know how student success in school can be maximized. A few basic tools used locally can bring forward the ideas of local teachers, students, and others to achieve exemplary status in dropout prevention. Dr. Ray Morley will share these tools with you and how they can be used immediately.

Supplementary materials are now available online at www.dropoutprevention.org/webcast for this radio Webcast. All necessary information about participating fully in this professional development opportunity is found on the Web site at www.dropoutprevention.org/webcast. If you have any further questions, feel free to contact the National Dropout Prevention Center at ndpc@clemson.edu or 864•656•2580.

Participation in this radio Webcast is free and no registration is required. The program will be archived in its entirety on the Web site.

On the day of the Webcast, link to the broadcast at www.dropoutprevention.org/webcast.

National Dropout Prevention Center/Network
College of Health, Education, and Human Development
Clemson University, 209 Martin Street
Clemson, SC 29631-1555 Telephone: 864-656-2599
email: ndpc@clemson.edu www.dropoutprevention.org

This Webcast is produced with support from Penn Foster.